

One Amazing Guy in Our World

Genesis 6:9-8:22

Listen! This past week an eleven year-old boy murdered his father....

Why talk about this? What is God calling us to in the midst of a very wicked world?

The Big Idea of this passage: In a wicked world that is destined for judgment God calls His people....to redemptive work and to worship.

First, we live in a wicked world that is destined for judgment.

Second, God calls His people to redemptive work.

The Big Idea of this passage: In a wicked world that is destined for judgment God calls His people....to redemptive work and to worship.

Please take time each day this week to think through these questions and ideas:

- Today: Are you really in touch with the level, degree, and spread of wickedness in our world? Do you see the stark parallels between our world and Noah's? Please pray to our Father about this world's need.
- Monday: In what ways has Jesus redeemed you? Take some time to thank Him for all of them.
- Tuesday: Make a list of the people who have done redemptive work in your life and how they did that work.
- Wednesday: Ask the Holy Spirit how He wants you to do redemptive work in your setting.
- Thursday: Ask the Holy Spirit how to enhance your worship of God.
- Friday: Identify one way to do redemptive work in the month of September and make a plan to follow through on that work.
 - ✍ One Idea: Attend the Care Net Pregnancy Center Silent Auction and Dinner on September 14th and bring an open heart and bring some money and bring a friend—be a part of some redemptive work in the lives of some girls with great need—something with great opportunity for redemption of lives and for great good.
- Saturday: For tomorrow please read Genesis 9:1-17.

Have you found it?”
