

The New Jerusalem – How Shall We Then Live

Listen! I'm doing some futures planning at work using a technique called scenario planning. The idea is to predict alternate futures, or scenarios, and then choose your strategies accordingly.

- Let's do a scenario plan on the rest of our lives

Question: If heaven is real and the King and Kingdom are coming and will last forever, How Shall We Then Live?

Today's Idea: If the Bible is true, then this life is but a shadow of the glorious kingdom to come, and the way we live now, the decisions we make, will determine our participation in it.

Revelation 21:1-8

Paradise, the Kingdom of God and the new Jerusalem

- The Dream
- The King and His Kingdom
- The Experiment
- The New Heavens, New Earth and New Jerusalem

What are we going to do?

- Celebrate
- Reign
- Discover

II Peter 3:1-13

How Shall We Then Live?

- The Judgment Seat of Christ
- The Gift vs. The Prize
- Set, Seek, Lay, Serve

The Bottom Line:

The King and the Kingdom of God is the major message of the Bible. The truth and certainty of it is unquestionable. The first question is, "Are you included?" The second question is, "How shall we live now to prepare for that certain future?"
